

 Agriculture, Animals & Food		Animals & Veterinary Science Looking after the health and welfare of animals. Vets & Veterinary Nurse, Animal Groomers, National Parks & Wildlife Service, Gamekeepers.	Farming, Horticulture & Forestry Working with the land, managing livestock, crops, forests or the environment. Farming, Forestry, Gardening and Landscaping Horticulture.	Food & Beverages Working with the production, distribution, preparation and serving of food and drinks. Enormous number of possible careers available at all stages of the food production cycle, from farm to fork. Butcher, Bakery, Chef, Brewerys.	Maritime, Fishing & Aquaculture Fishing in the open seas or farming them in fish farms. Looking after the sale and promotion of all seafood. Fishing, Fish Farming.
 STEM, Environment & Construction		Biological, Chemical & Pharmaceutical Science Creating high quality drugs or chemicals, testing them to ensure they are effective and safe, and monitoring their effect on people and the environment. Pharmacist, Food Scientist, Botanist. Biomedical Technologies & Medtech Work on the development of technology that enhances the diagnosis, prevention, monitoring, and treatment of diseases and disabilities. Medical Device Development & Manufacture.	Computers & ICT Working in the manufacture, sales or support of all forms of computers and computer systems, or in the creation and development of software. Programmers, Data Protection. Construction, Architecture & Property Working in the planning, building, selling or Management of construction projects (housing estates, roads, warehouses etc.). Architect, Quantity Surveyor, Trades.	Earth & Environment Work with technologies which monitor and predict changes in our environment, the development of renewable energy sources, and the conservation of ecosystems. Geophysicist, Development of Renewable Energies. Engineering & Manufacturing Working in one of the many engineering or technology fields such as Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, Manufacturing, Motor and Energy.	Physics, Mathematics & Space Science Researching and investigating aspects of the physical universe, or using mathematics to solve complex issues in science or business.
 Medical, Wellbeing & Sport		Leisure, Sport & Fitness Working in a leisure centre, in sports as a player or coach, or involved in personal / fitness training.	Medical & Healthcare Working in hospitals, clinics and medical centres looking after the health and care of people with physical illness.	Psychology & Social Care Caring for individuals experiencing psychological difficulties, or with the welfare of individuals or groups of people experiencing some form of hardship. Social Worker, Counsellor, Psychiatric Nursing.
 Creative Arts, Fashion & Media		Art, Craft & Design Producing new pieces of art, craft or design work.	Fashion & Beauty Working in any area involving fashion, beauty care, hairdressing and personal hygiene, e.g. Fashion design, Beauty therapy etc. Designer, Beautician, Hairdresser.	Media & Publishing Communicating information through various forms of media, e.g. TV, Radio, newspapers, the internet, and film.	Music & Performing Arts Working in the music/entertainment business as an artist (performer) or in one of the many roles that are involved in the design and production of a show.
 Government, Law & Education		Community & Voluntary Working to provide services to people of all ages across areas including social, community, youth, education, and charity, voluntary and sporting organisations.	Education & Teaching Teaching at any level, including professional training, or involved in the design and development of courses and the qualifications that they lead to. Government, Politics & EU Working for the government to ensure the efficient and correct running of the country. Civil Servant, Politician.	History, Culture & Languages Working in museums, art galleries or heritage management. Using languages professionally, e.g. translating, interpreting, working for the EU and in global sales and support.	Law & Legal Involved in the administration of the law, defending the rights of individuals and organisations. Solicitor, Barrister. Security, Defence & Law Enforcement Working in the Garda, Army, Navy, Air Corps, or other organisations involved in personal, national or cyber security.
 Accountancy, Finance & Insurance		Accountancy & Taxation Working mainly in business, records details of financial transactions and provides advice on financial and tax matters. Banking & Financial Services Providing services to the public and business through banking, fund management and other forms of financial services.	Insurance Providing and selling insurance services to the public and businesses. Business, Sales & Tourism Advertising, Marketing & Public Relations Creating advertising, managing marketing campaigns, and ensuring that a company is always seen in the best possible light.	Business Management & Human Resources Involved in the running of a business, helping it grow and develop, operate efficiently, meet business objectives and manage its workforce. Clerical & Administration Working in an office and being involved in the day to day running of a business.	Sales, Retail & Purchasing All forms of work directly involved in the delivery of products and services to the marketplace. Tourism & Hospitality Attending to the needs of local and visiting tourists, e.g. the hotels, restaurants, bars and tourist attractions, and promoting Ireland as a welcoming place to visit.

STRENGTH

SECTOR

COURSE
